TLC Alternative Assignment

For Your Information (FYI)

Participant will complete a 1 ½ - 2 page paper detailing the Teenage and Adult Driver Responsibility Act in place of the court offered FYI class. The information on the act can be found on the Department of Driver Services website; www.dds.ga.gov. This paper should succinctly describe the law and explain how it affects each age group differently. Please be sure to include your traffic violation and how this law has or could potentially effect you and your driving privileges/ability or lack there of.

Choice Equal Consequences (C=C)

Participant will complete a 1 ½ - 2 page paper thoroughly describing the decision making process. The paper should include a situation or an example of a decision you have made or need to make in the near future; include how this decision/choice will affect you or those around you (i.e., family, employment, or strangers) either positively or negatively. Examples of decisions to include in your paper could be your choices to speed, to violate the HOV lane, or which college you plan to attend in the fall.

Please ensure your papers are grammatically correct and there are no spelling errors. Papers should include 1 inch margins and be written in Times New Roman with 12" font double spaced. Also include a works cited page, this is mandatory.
